

VIETNAM SUPPORTING INDUSTRIES FORUM 2018

“Vietnam’s Industrial Developments towards the Next Asian Manufacturing Hub”

Thursday, 26 July 2018, 13.30-16.00 hrs.

Origami Ballroom, Hotel Nikko Saigon
235 Nguyen Van Cu, Dist.1, Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam

Recently, supporting industries in Vietnam, especially in Ho Chi Minh City, has been focused on the developments in order to prepare Vietnam to become the next manufacturing hub in Asia. Vietnamese government continues supporting the industries through projects and incentives with the goal of enhancing capacity, improving product quality, strengthening innovation and encouraging investment. Another key success in developing supporting industries in Vietnam to step into the global value chains is to strengthen cooperation with foreign partners. Japan is considered as one of the major partners in terms of foreign direct investment (FDI). The opportunities and challenges on boosting stronger connections and building relationships between Vietnam and Japan are currently drawn attentions to both Vietnamese manufacturers and Japanese buyers.

This forum will be an exceptional platform for key industry players in Vietnam, Japan, and other ASEAN countries to get a glimpse of future supporting industries, possible investment, business possibilities, and partnerships for Vietnamese manufacturers and related supporting industrialists.

Target Delegates:

- Executives, managements, SMEs and entrepreneurs in manufacturing and supporting industries
- Japanese FDI partners, investors, buyers, makers and enterprises
- Vietnamese manufacturers, suppliers, enterprises and industrialists
- Members, executives and government officers of related associations/organizations
- Press and public

Remarks:

- No registration fee but limited seats available, pre-registration is required.
- The seminar will be conducted in Vietnamese.
Japanese speaker will present in Japanese and Vietnamese translation.
- The Organizer reserves the right to adjust the program without prior notice.
